Glacier & Great Northern Railway

July & August

TOUR RATING: EASY

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

- Arrive at East Glacier by train from Havre, Montana
- Travel by open-top “Red Bus” to Logan Pass on the Going-to-the-Sun road
- Visit the Museum of the Plains Indian on the Blackfeet Indian Reservation
- Travel by boat on the park’s lakes to trailheads that are inaccessible by automobile
- Stay at historic hotels built by the railway before 1915

Much as the Santa Fe and Union Pacific railroads did in other national parks, the Great Northern developed both accommodations and services for early 20th Century visitors to Glacier. Park visits provided patronage for passenger trains, and everything from construction materials to hotel-and-restaurant supplies arrived by freight train. GN built hotels and backcountry chalets, and provided transportation by bus, boat, and horseback along with meals and lodging. This tour will recreate some of these early experiences. The scenery, of course, is as breathtaking as ever.

1

Great Falls to Havre, MT

We gather at the international airport in Great Falls, Montana, and depart for Havre aboard our vehicle. If you prefer to, arrive in Havre by train and we will join you there. Consider a visit to either the Wahpka Chug'n Buffalo Jump archeological site or to the Fort Assiniboine historic site while we are driving up to meet you. Havre, halfway between St Paul and Seattle, was selected in the 1890s as the site for major repair and overhauling of locomotives. It became the largest Montana city on the railway's main line. Meals included: Dinner

2

Empire Builder to Glacier National Park

This morning we visit the Havre Locomotive Shop to learn about the work required to keep BNSF's modern diesel-electric locomotives operating at their peak. The nearby H.E. Clack Museum, interpreting the history and natural history of Montana's high plains, provides an alternative experience. After lunch we will see and photograph Great Northern Railway 4-8-4 steam locomotive no. 2584 (Baldwin Locomotive Works, 1930), preserved at Havre's Amtrak station, while we await Amtrak's Empire Builder for our four-hour trip to Glacier Park Station. Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

3

Glacier National Park: Two Medicine

This morning we visit the Two Medicine region of Glacier National Park for a ranger-guided boat cruise on Two Medicine Lake and guided walk to Twin Falls. After lunch, we travel to Browning, on the Blackfeet Indian Reservation, where we visit the US Department of the Interior's Museum of the Plains Indian. Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

4

Glacier National Park: Many Glacier

We take a scenic drive along the eastern border of the park to Many Glacier Hotel, which is surrounded by awe-inspiring scenery in the heart of the park. We arrive in time for a guided boat cruise on Swiftcurrent Lake/ Lake Josephine followed by an optional guided hike to Grinnell Lake. If time allows this area is full of amazing hikes and we can further stretch our legs to a nearby waterfall or search for resident wildlife. Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

5

Going to the Sun Road

Discover why Glacier National Park is labeled "The Crown of the Continent" as we travel the Going-to-the-Sun road on a red bus tour to Logan Pass on the continental divide and to the west side of the park at Lake McDonald. With waterfalls, glacial lakes, wildlife, and iconic views around every corner there is no shortage of places we could stop along our drive today. We will enjoy lunch at Lake McDonald Lodge which was built in 1913 before returning to the east side of the park. Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Essex, MT & BNSF Railway

After a leisurely breakfast and opportunity to relax at the hotel, we will transfer to Essex, Montana, along the BNSF Railway main line at the southern boundary of Glacier National Park. Our lodging tonight is the Izaak Walton Inn, built in 1939 primarily to house employees of the Great Northern Railway. As railway operations and maintenance became less labor-intensive, the hotel gradually drew more of its clientele from the traveling public rather than rail workers. Hiking will be available, as will train-watching – or take the opportunity to relax. Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

DAY

Departures from Great Falls

After breakfast transfer to Great Falls International Airport. Amtrak passengers may board at Essex or East Glacier stations. Meals included: Breakfast
